

Kinsale Regatta

Big weekend over September 24-26 at Port Kinsale and The Mooring Restaurant.

The NNSA is holding the 3rd Annual Kinsale Regatta with a “boat load” of events for everyone, sailors and lubbers alike.

Friday night there is a reception (party) from 1800 hrs for folks to attend and socialize on the deck of The Mooring Restaurant. Owner, Charlie Santangelo, will be serving plenty of his best, homemade pizza for everyone to enjoy. In addition, the Lucky Lady bar, located on the deck of the Mooring Restaurant will be open for the evening. There will be a Skipper’s Meeting starting about 1900 hrs.

Saturday morning the “round the buoys” race will start at 1100 hrs at the mouth of the Yeocomico on the Potomac River. Spectators are more than welcome, as long as they have a vessel. No swimmers please.

After the hardy racers return everyone can ramp up at 1830 hrs for the gourmet pasta dinner at The Mooring. There will be a selection of pastas and sauces, salad, bread, and more.

Sunday starts early with a 0900 hrs start to the Pursuit Race on the Potomac River. After the race we’ll have a few brews or other refreshments while the Race Committee tallies the results and presents the awards.

Make your plans and get your reservations in early. The details of the regatta will be included in the Sailing Instructions. Watch the NNSA web site.

See you late September.
